STUDENTS RULES OF CONDUCT

This is the basic code of conduct that Heritage Study Center requires all students to obey.

- Students are expected to observe Christian standards of behavior and conversation. For example, students must speak honestly, respect their peers and submit to authority.
- Prompt and cheerful obedience is expected.
- Students must comply with the dress code in all respects.
- In order to avoid litter and distraction, chewing gum, candy, etc. are not permitted.
- Students are not permitted to use non-academic electronic devices such as cell phones, music players, game systems, cameras and other similar devices. All such devices must be kept in the student's school bag until after the school day is complete. Academic electronic devices such as calculators, electronic dictionaries, etc. are permitted for use when approved by teacher.
- Students are expected to be aware of and avoid the off-limit areas of the building. Students should not play on or around cars in the parking lot.
- Running is not allowed in the building.
- Students are expected to treat all class materials and facilities with respect and care.
- Students are expected to treat one another with kindness and respect.
- Students are expected to treat prayer and class discussion with proper reverence.
- Public displays of affection in the context of boy/girl relationships are not permitted at Heritage Study Center.
- Any home assignments missed as a result of absence should be completed in the timeframe set forth by the teacher.
- Students accept responsibility to complete all homework assignments in the timeframe set forth by the teacher as outlined in the Heritage Study Center Academic Policy.
- Students recognize that they are to be held responsible for their conduct, both in action and attitude, by their parents, teachers and those in authority at Heritage Study Center.

We acknowledge and agree the Students Rules Of Conduct that are consistent with Heritage Study Center's Statement of Faith (at least one parent/guardian must sign along with the student).
